9 v.) ORDER GRANTING
COUNSEL AND FOR CONTEMPT
10 C. WILBER, et al.,)
11 Defendants.) (Docket Nos. 5, 7, 8)
12

14 On March 28, 2012, Plaintiff, a California prisoner, wrote a letter to the Court
15 complaining that his constitutional rights were being violated. On the same day, the 16 Clerk notified Plaintiff that he had not filed a complaint, and also notified him that he 17 had neither paid the filing fee nor filed a completed application to proceed in forma
18 pauperis (“IFP”). In the notices, Plaintiff was informed that the case would be dismissed
19 if he did not file a complaint and either pay the filing fee or file a completed IFP
20 application within thirty days. Plaintiff has filed a complaint and an IFP application.
21 The IFP application is incomplete, however, as it does not include a trust account
22 statement showing transactions of the last six months or a certificate of funds signed by 23 an authorized prison official. Plaintiff has requested an extension of time in which to 24 submit the trust account statement and certificate of funds. Good cause appearing, the 25 request for an extension of time is GRANTED. Within thirty days of the date this order
26 is filed, Plaintiff shall submit the required trust account statement and certificate of funds
27 signed by a prison official. If he does not, the case will be dismissed. Prison officials
28 are directed to promptly respond to Plaintiff’s request for these materials by either

1 providing them to Plaintiff or mailing them to the Court directly with a clear indication
2 of the case number No. C 12-1552 JSW (PR).

3 Plaintiff's motion for appointment of counsel is DENIED at this time for want of 4 exceptional circumstances or evidence that Plaintiff cannot adequately pursue his claims
5 on his own. Plaintiff's motion for contempt is DENIED.

6 IT IS SO ORDERED.
